All about the location

El Molinar is a charming coastal district of Palma de Mallorca, characterized by its mix of traditional flair and modern lifestyle. The former fishing village has developed into a popular residential area in recent years, known above all for its proximity to the sea and its idyllic promenade. With a population of around 7,000 people, El Molinar is a lively district that nevertheless offers a quiet and relaxed atmosphere.

The location of the district is ideal: El Molinar is only about 3 kilometers from the historic center of Palma, making it particularly attractive for those who want to enjoy the amenities of the city while living in a quiet environment by the sea. Palma airport is also within easy reach - at only around 7 kilometers away, it is practically on the doorstep, which is particularly convenient for frequent travelers and commuters.

In addition to its convenient location, El Molinar impresses with its charming, low houses in Mediterranean style and the many cozy cafés and restaurants along the coast. This is where Mallorcan tradition meets modern lifestyle, making the district a sought-after place to live for both locals and international buyers.
