A first impression

The property on offer is in an excellent location in the popular and prestigious district of Prenzlauer Berg. Located in a quiet side street of Prenzlauer Allee, the spacious Beletage apartment with a living space of 110 m² is situated in an old building dating back to 1890. By merging two residential units, a spacious 4-room apartment with three bedrooms, a kitchen, a bathroom with bathtub and a guest WC was created.

The Beletage, traditionally the most elegant floor of an urban residential building, is characterized by high ceilings, large windows, ornate stucco decorations and representative rooms. These classic features are also reflected in this apartment in an old building. A continuous plank floor gives the entire apartment an elegant and timeless character. The high ceilings and the elaborately designed stucco elements in the living rooms and bedrooms underline the stylish ambience of this dream home.

Thanks to its well thought-out floor plan, the apartment offers enough space for larger families. One of the former kitchens has been converted into an additional bedroom with a bunk bed. The apartment also has a spacious living room with a view of the quiet inner courtyard, a separate kitchen and two hallways. Two separate cellar compartments also belong to the unit and offer practical storage space in the immediate vicinity of the apartment.

A modern heating boiler was installed in 1992 and the apartment was extensively renovated in 2012. The stairwell in the front building was renovated in 2023, and the street-facing windows were also replaced in the same year. The renovation of the courtyard is currently being planned.

Overall, the apartment and the house are in a well-kept condition. With a successful combination of historical elements and modern living comfort, it offers an attractive option for buyers who appreciate the special charm of an apartment in an old building.

If you have any further questions about the property or would like to arrange a viewing, please do not hesitate to contact us at any time. Please do not hesitate to contact us by telephone or e-mail. We look forward to providing you with more information and showing you the apartment in person.
