A first impression

This extraordinary 5-room maisonette is located in a listed residential ensemble designed by the renowned architect Bruno Taut and uniquely combines historical character with contemporary living comfort. The building, which dates back to 1925, was extensively renovated and a modern fifth floor was added. The refurbishment measures were completed in 2022, with all key elements such as the plumbing, electrics, floors, façade, windows and roof being renewed. The planned staircase renovation will further round off the high-quality overall appearance of the building.

With a generous living space of approx. 148.60 m², the apartment extends over the 4th and 5th floors and impresses with its intelligent room layout and high-quality fittings. Light-flooded rooms, fine oak strip parquet flooring and stylish design elements create an exclusive living ambience.

On entering the apartment, you enter the hallway, which provides access to the various living areas. The spacious bedroom with a view of the quiet street creates a pleasant retreat, while the modern shower room with window, large tiles and towel radiator offers maximum comfort. The bright and spacious living room forms the heart of this floor and provides direct access to the southeast-facing balcony, which invites you to linger with its view of the green inner courtyard. A separate dressing room is also accessible from the living room. The well thought-out room layout makes the apartment particularly attractive for families as well as for multi-generational use.

The upper floor impresses with its open-plan design and aesthetic wooden beams, which lend the living area a charming atmosphere. The spacious living and dining area with many wall and ceiling windows is flooded with natural light and offers a perfect blend of modernity and comfort. The exclusive eat-in kitchen with Siemens built-in appliances and a spacious kitchen island is a highlight for culinary journeys. Two well-designed bedrooms with quiet street views and ceiling windows as well as a high-quality bathroom with window, electric ventilation and large mirrored surfaces round off the space on offer.

An outstanding highlight of this apartment are the four original GDR wall artworks by the Young Pioneers, which have been painstakingly restored and stylishly integrated into the living concept. These artistic elements not only lend the apartment a unique aesthetic, but also tell a piece of contemporary history.

Come and see this dream home for yourself and arrange a viewing today!

All about the location

The apartment is located in a quiet side street in the sought-after district of Prenzlauer Berg. The surrounding area is characterized by charming old buildings, leafy courtyards and an excellent infrastructure. Numerous shops, cafés, restaurants and small boutiques are located in the immediate vicinity and are within easy walking distance.

The location offers a wide range of leisure activities. The nearby Volkspark Prenzlauer Berg and Volkspark Friedrichshain are ideal for walks, sport and relaxation. Mauerpark, known for its flea market and cultural events, is also within easy reach. There are also various sports facilities, fitness studios and green spaces for active recreation in the surrounding area.

The public transport connections are excellent. The Landsberger Allee S-Bahn station (S41, S42, S8, S85) is just a few minutes' walk away and offers fast connections to the city center and other important transport hubs. In addition, the M5, M6 and M8 streetcar lines provide convenient connections to Alexanderplatz, the main railway station and other central locations in Berlin. Many destinations can also be reached quickly by bike or on foot.

This residential area is ideal for young families, couples and professionals looking for a perfect combination of urban living and a quiet residential atmosphere. The outstanding infrastructure, the wide range of leisure activities and the excellent transport links make the apartment particularly attractive for anyone who enjoys the vibrant city life and at the same time appreciates a pleasant quality of living.
